HIGH BALL TOOK THE HONORS AT READVILLE

Defeated Sonoma Girl in Contest for the Massachusetts Stake at Readville-Both Horses Were Lame.

Readville., Mass., Aug. 21.—High Ball, with the master reinsman, Ed. Geers, in the sulky, evened the score with Sonoma Girl yesterday at the grand circuit meeting by taking the honors quite handily in the classic Massachusetts stakes, valued at $9,000. Both of the starters, High Ball and Sonoma Girl, entered the fray very lame, the former limping painfully when jogging slowly, while the warme warmed out of her ailment al-most entirely after a couple of prepara-tory miles, but her fault of breaking in the first turn was her undoing, as in each heat she made a disastrous break at that point, falling to the rear. Nearly 12,000 persons saw the racing.

CONTRACTORS CRITCISE

File Communication With School Commissioners Condemning Builder's Work on School Building.

Rutland, Aug. 22.—Charges by eleven Rutland contractors that the work on a new school building at East and East Center streets by Charles W. Spear of Burlington is not of the best quality, contained in a communication signed by them, caused a heated meeting of the board of school commissioners Tuesday night, during which the contractors were denounced by two members and defended by another. The complaining contract-ors are F. H. Remington, Rollin W. Ken-yon, Frank Connill, Charles E. Paige, B. K. Houston, Frank Pecor, A. A. White, John J. Harrison and Henry Gardner.

The communication declared that the reneering, sills and the mortar used in the building were poor, and made other criticisms. Commissioners James F. Lamb and George H. Baker spoke scath-ingly of the charges and scored the men who made them. Commissioner B. K. Houston replied, making a strong plea for the contractors. The discussion finally became so heated that the board went into executive session.

The death of David P. Holt, 77 years of age, occurred at $:30 o'clock Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Emerson, his daughter, in Berlin, where with his wife he had been visiting. He with his wife he had been visiting. He was called and the pany's ambulance was called and the

The train had just pulled in from Graniteville with a long train heavily loaded with granite and were running onto the scales in the yard where the cars are weighed. Brakeman Smith had cars are weighed. Brakeman Smith had jumped off and gone to the scales to attend to the weighing and O'Grady whose duty it was to "spot" the cars on the scales was climbing down from the car next to the engine to get onto the running board of the engine to give his signals to Engineer John McHugo was he either slipped or lost his hold and fell squarely across the track with his head between the rails. Smith saw him fall and yelled to the engineer who In Raid on Place of F. Comolli on stopped the train before it had gone but a very few feet further. O'Grady fell so near to the wheels that it was im possible for the engineer to save him. The train had to be backed up off from the body before it could be pulled from under the train. O'Grady had been employed by the railroad company for nearly two years. He was especially well thought of his fellow workmen and was called by them "Silent Tommy" on account of his quiet and industrious ways. He was alway very careful when at work on a train and his efflow brakeman said that he was the last man they would have thought o fto meet with that kind O'Grady was 40 years of age and was sisters, Michael of North Williston, John, of Northfield Falls, Dennis, who resides in Wisconsin, Mrs. Morris Ryan of Nortafield Falls and Mrs. John Donnolly of White River Junction. The body was taken to Northfield Falls this morning by the two brothers, Michael and John, and the funeral will be held from St. Johns church in Northfield. It has not yet been decided what day the services will be held.

St. Johnsbury Does Not Appreciate Dramatic Art.

The St. Johnsbury Caledonian thus records the presentation of "A Lamb From Wall Street," in that classic town last Saturday evening: "Through a mistake W. W. LaPoint and his company of alleged artists were permitted to put on Mr. LaPoint's latest production, "A Lamb from Wall Street," at the opera house Saturday night. Luckily the event passed off with no fatalities, but how many of the mea-gre crowd present survived the frightful ordeal is a mystery beyond our ken.
